One cannot live in a place where candy is everywhere and everything's the ultimate utopia. It wouldn't be a story, it would be selfish thinking. In a story there is conflict and confusion like you don't know what is going to happen next. That's the beauty of Story Wars, you can make your own twists and turns; you can choose what happens; you can share your ideas. I mean, in the future all of these stories (except fan fiction) are going to be made into books, right? I could be wrong. I could be very, very wrong.

In Story Wars you can create, write, and vote. 'Cause there's, like, a million stories that still need to be finished, so join today and continue them all.

nervously laughs Please, I'm begging you.
